INTRODUCTION

Our M.A. in History is a postgraduate programme offered by Mangalayatan University (MUDE). Our course curriculum is designed with political, cultural, social, and economic topics within a historical context. Through the course curriculum, ancient, medieval, and modern periods are covered in both Indian and world history contexts. The programme curriculum interprets historical events to guide students to diverse careers in teaching, historical research, and civil services. The curriculum modules cover the topics of culture and heritage awareness for cultural preservation. The semester topics also focus on equipping students with articulate complex ideas.

MISSION

- To encourage students to understand the historical and socio-economic context that shapes societies.
- To cultivate critical thinking and analytical skills for persuasive academic skills and archival research, and enhance research capabilities.
- To motivate students to contribute to their role in society through education, research, and public services.

OBJECTIVES

The main objective of the M.A. in History (Online Distance Learning Mode) programme at MUDE is to develop students' understanding of historical methods and techniques, encouraging independent research, identifying biases, and constructing well-reasoned arguments. The course focuses on an interdisciplinary understanding of history, drawing on politics, economics, culture, sociology, anthropology, and archaeology, to develop an ethical approach to resolving social issues.

INSTRUCTIONAL DESIGN

The programme is segmented into four semesters, and the minimum credit requirement is 80 to get an ODL M.A. in History degree from Mangalayatan University. The minimum time period to complete the M.A. in History degree programme will be two years, and the maximum time period (extended) is three years to pursue the ODL M.A. degree.
